

2012-2013 SCHOLARSHIP GUIDE FOR CONTINUING & GRADUATE STUDENTS

Scholarships at Old Dominion University have been established through the generosity of individuals, organizations and corporations to recognize outstanding academic performance and to assist students in pursuing their educational goals. Scholarship awards are based on a variety of criteria. For some awards, eligibility is entirely determined by academic merit or potential. Other requirements might include demonstrated financial need, field of study, state or city residency, graduation from a particular high school or participation in a specific program, organization or activity. Generally, recipients have earned at least a 3.4 grade point average (on a 4.00 scale) and are full-time, degree-seeking students.

- ❖ All first-time freshmen and transfer students will automatically be considered for academic and endowed scholarships based on their admissions application.
- ❖ The majority of scholarships offered to Old Dominion University returning students are based on information already known to the university.
- ❖ The only students who should submit the Form for Continuing Students are
 - Students who have a CHANGE in scholarship eligibility according to the Criteria Checklist; a change in information refers to the data originally given on the admissions application or on subsequent scholarship forms. Please be aware that the criteria on the checklist may also change annually.
- ❑ Continuing students who meet the above circumstances must complete and submit the Scholarship Form for Continuing and Graduate Students to the Office of Student Financial Aid, 121 Rollins Hall, Norfolk, VA 23529-0052, to be considered for scholarships for the 2012-2013 academic year. THE FORM MUST BE RECEIVED BY FEBRUARY 15, 2012.
- ❑ The information provided on the Form for Continuing Students will be maintained and used for scholarship selection for the duration of the student's attendance at Old Dominion University.
- ❑ It is not necessary to complete this form more than once during the student's attendance at Old Dominion University, UNLESS THE REQUIRED INFORMATION HAS CHANGED.
- ❑ To determine the student's eligibility for need-based scholarships (designated by an asterisk (*) in this guide) students must also file the 2012-2013 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) PRIOR to February 15, 2012.
- ✓ Selection procedures vary for these awards.
- ✓ All scholarships require admission and enrollment in a degree program at Old Dominion University.
- ✓ Some scholarships require declared majors rather than intended, please verify your status on Leo-online.
- ✓ For some scholarships, a portfolio, an audition or participation in a specific program may be required.
- ✓ The additional steps, if required, are summarized following each scholarship description.
- ✓ Students will receive written notification of any scholarship for which they have been selected.
- ✓ Most scholarships will be awarded as soon as April 2012 for the upcoming 2012-13 academic year.
- ✓ All scholarships must be formally accepted in writing via returning the scholarship acceptance form enclosed with the scholarship notification letter.
- Scholarship awards MAY reduce other Financial Aid offers. If this occurs, the student will receive a revised online award notification from the Financial Aid Office.
- All adjustments are made according to federal/state guidelines and in the best interest of the student when possible.

Key: * Scholarships are Need-based and requires that a FAFSA be filed prior to February 15, 2012.

- ◆ Graduate students are also eligible for this scholarship.
