

Summer Semester 2011 – Full Tuition and Fee Information

SUMMER 2011 TUITION DUE JULY 5, 2011

TUITION AND MANDATORY FEES

The University term “tuition” refers to a per-credit-hour comprehensive rate that includes payment for instructional programs, academic services, student services and activities, recreational sports, and intercollegiate athletics. There is no maximum tuition amount for students. All tuition charges are based on a per-credit-hour rate.

In-state tuition privileges are granted only upon application for in-state tuition classification no later than the first day of the session for which the student is enrolling. Information about applying for in-state tuition rates may be obtained from the Office of the Registrar at 757-683-4425 or on the Web at www.odu.edu/registrar.

ODU TUITION RATES

Tuition rates are per-credit-hour only and include the technology fee. Current tuition rates are effective through Spring 2012 semester. Rates are subject to change by the Board of Visitors (BOV) in April.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Students are expected to obtain financial information through the secure access on the Web via LEO Online (www.leonline.odu.edu). Failure to receive written notification does not grant immunity in financial matters. Failure to obtain available data through self-service secure access via LEO Online, or to read and comply with University regulations, will not exempt students from whatever financial penalties they may incur.

LEO ONLINE SELF-SERVICE STUDENT ACCOUNTS

Student accounts can be viewed using any Internet browser. Visit www.leonline.odu.edu to view charges, receive and print your bill or receipt, view disbursed financial aid, class schedule, view/update addresses and more. PIN codes are required. Once registered, students accept financial responsibility for payment to Old Dominion University. Students who fail to make full payment by the tuition deadline are subject to financial penalties.

DOMICILE DECISIONS AND RATE ASSESSMENT

In-state tuition rates are a privilege granted by the Code of Virginia and are awarded only upon application for in-state rates. Students must apply for in-state tuition rates in order to qualify, and application deadlines apply. Students who fail to apply for in-state privileges will be billed at the out-of-state rate. Upon approval, rates will be revised appropriately. Refer to the Registrar’s web page for more details.

PENDING DOMICILE DECISIONS (Special Note Regarding Payment)

Students with pending domicile decisions are responsible for paying tuition for at least the in-state rate by the tuition deadline. Once the domicile decision is made, if the student is classified at the out-of-state rate, the difference between the in-state and out-of-state rate will be due immediately. Students should not wait until the final domicile decision is made to pay tuition.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR TUITION DEBT

Students are responsible for debts resulting from registration for courses. Registrations will not be canceled for non-payment of tuition or non-attendance. Therefore, failure to pay for courses or attend courses will not release students from the responsibility for these charges. Students may contact Customer Relations at (757) 683-3030 (select option #1 from the menu) or via e-mail at tuition@odu.edu. Distance Learning students should contact their Site staff or the Office of Distance Learning for additional information.

WARNING:

When using the Web Check process, please ensure that you enter all account information accurately. If a bank cannot locate a specific account associated with a web check, a student might not be aware of the outstanding amount until contacted by a collection agency.

Students may not use Credit Card Convenience Checks to make payments via Old Dominion University's WEB Check payment process. Convenience checks are not recognized by automated banking systems. Since the bank cannot locate a specific account associated with a convenience check, a student might not be aware of the outstanding amount until contacted by a collection agency.

Failure to receive written notification does not grant immunity in financial matters. Students are encouraged to review LEO Online to ensure that payment has been posted to their student accounts. Students who fail to make full payment by the tuition deadline are subject to financial penalties.

Returned Checks and Charges: There is a $20 administrative charge for all checks and charges returned unpaid by the bank for any reason. If a check or charge is returned unpaid for any reason, the student will have seven (7) days to repay the check or charge amount and the $20 administrative fee. Failure to do so will result in a payment penalty. Effective July 1, 2011, this fee will increase to $50.

Employer or third-party payments are accepted by the University through company checks or purchase orders, or the University can bill the employer for charges with the appropriate authorization submitted. The University is unable to bill employers who reimburse employees based on the course outcome or the grade received. Contact Cashiering for more information.

Using Financial Aid to pay your account: The Office of Finance is the disbursing agent for financial aid funds. Financial aid funds are applied directly to student accounts when the funds are available. For credit balances due to the student, the funds will be returned to the student in the form of a check. Balance of aid checks are normally made payable to the student and mailed to the student's permanent address on file with the Registrar. Checks for balance of aid are released 5-7 business days after the credit balance is created. If the charges exceed the aid awarded, the student is held responsible for any remaining balance.

ELECTRONIC BILLING

The University does not mail paper bills. Notifications are sent to your official ODU.EDU address issued to all admitted students. You must activate your e-mail account. Failure to activate or maintain your official account will NOT be a valid reason for failure to pay on time. With ODU's student billing system, you can see your latest billing statements and make payments. You can also authorize your parents, guardians, or employer to access your bill and set up stored payment profiles. On your e-bill, the due date for each charge is displayed to the left of each applicable charge. If you have questions regarding your bill, please send an e-mail to tuition@odu.edu.

To receive a billing statement, you must be registered the day before electronic billing statements are issued. Billing statements for tuition and fees are issued electronically to students who have pre-registered. Otherwise, students are expected to use the self-service secure access provided through LEO Online. Any student who registers or adds classes after the advance billing will be issued a statement by electronic mail during the next billing cycle and charges will be subject to financial penalties. Failure to receive a reminder bill confirming charges does not waive the requirement for payment when due. Statements will be sent to the ODU.EDU e-mail address.

OUTSTANDING DEBTS/DELINQUENT ACCOUNTS

Students with outstanding debts are denied University services until all debts are paid in full. Students will be permitted to drop current or future term courses at the Registrar's Office during the specified tuition refund periods. Student accounts are subject to the financial policies of Old Dominion University, as specified in the University Catalog.

Late Penalty: Late fees are assessed at the time of billing for accounts that are 30 or more days past due. At 30 days past due, a late penalty of 10% of the outstanding balance is assessed. The Late Penalty indicates that your account is past due. Unless you resolve the debt immediately, the University will advance the matter to the next step in the collection process*, and you risk tarnishing your credit rating.

Collection Activities: Once the original principal amount on an account is 90 days or more past due and forwarded to collections, repayment arrangements must be made directly with the collection agency, and the account holder bears the costs associated with collection efforts. *Late fees will be 60 days past due when sent to collections, since they are sent to collections at the same time as the principal amount. Effective April 1, 2011, the costs associated with collection efforts are 25% of the outstanding balance, which is the standard and customary amount for the collection industry.

TUITION REFUND POLICY FOR SUMMER SEMESTER 2011

Tuition charges must be paid in full by July 5, 2011. The University will refund tuition to students who qualify by formally dropping courses within the published deadlines. Failure to attend a course after registering is not justification for elimination of charges. Failure to pay will not release a student from the responsibility for these charges. Students must drop using official procedures and within the published deadlines in order to qualify for a refund or a release from charges.

No refund or additional tuition charges are assessed for students who drop and add an equal number of credit hours on the same day within the same semester/session if the per-credit tuition rates are the same.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS

Administrative drops, as in the case of classes canceled by the University or the case of academically suspended students, entitle the student to a full refund of tuition. Military students who are unable to complete course requirements due to deployment to a duty assignment should contact the Office of the Registrar with a copy of their military orders.

ISSUANCE OF CHECKS

Refund Checks: If a student formally drops classes within the published refund period, the appropriate tuition refund (less any other outstanding debts owed to the University) will be authorized as outlined above. Refund checks are made payable to the student and mailed to the student's permanent address approximately four to six weeks after the end of the drop/add period.

Replacement Checks: Checks that are lost, mutilated, or destroyed can be replaced. It usually takes 10 business days to have a replacement check issued. The Stop Payment Request form must be submitted to the Customer Relations desk in the downstairs lobby of Rollins Hall before a replacement check can be issued. This form is available at the web site of the Office of Finance (www.odu.edu/finance) (Student Forms).

SENIOR CITIZEN TUITION EXEMPTIONS

Certain tuition and fee exemptions are provided to those age 60 or older with qualifying income levels who desire to attend credit courses. Those interested in registering under this program may do so beginning the first day of class. Details may be obtained from the Office of the University Registrar at (757) 683-4425. Distance learning students should contact the Site staff.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS on TUITION AND FEES

Is there a payment plan during the summer?	No. The payment plan is only available during fall and spring semesters. If you register for classes after the tuition deadline, full payment is due at the time of registration.
What is the difference between a "drop" and a "withdrawal"?	Drops can occur up until the published drop deadline for the class session . No indication of registration is reflected on your academic history. No charges are assessed. Withdrawals occur after the drop date, up until the mid-point of the term. Students remain responsible for payment of tuition and fees. A grade of "W" is entered on your academic history.
Why do I have to pay the General Service Fee and the Transportation Fee?	The Board of Visitors approves mandatory fees (which include the General Service Fee and the Transportation Fee) and the criteria under which they apply to all students. Mandatory fees are not subject to appeal for waivers. Visit the Office of Finance web site for the most complete and up-to-date information ( www.odu.edu/finance ).
When do I get a bill?	The University no longer mails paper bills. All billing is done via e-billing to your ODU.EDU e-mail address. To receive an e-billing statement, you must be registered the day before electronic billing statements are sent. Please note that bills are e-mailed to all students with charges due within 60 days from the billing date. Students are expected to use the self-service secure access provided through LEO Online ( www.leonline.odu.edu ). PIN required for secure access. Do not wait for an e-billing statement to pay tuition and charges.
What do I do if someone else is paying my bill?	Checks are accepted, but please ensure that your University ID number or SSN is provided on the check. However, if someone else is paying your charges by credit card via the web, they will need your PIN code to complete the transaction.

My employer has agreed to pay my tuition — what is the process for this?

The University can bill a student's employer for a student's charges with the appropriate written authorization. The University will accept 1556 forms, purchase orders, tuition assistance forms, or other written authorization. Written authorization should be signed, be on official letterhead, and must include the following information: student name, social security or ID number, term of enrollment, authorization amount, billing address, contact name and telephone number, and document number (if any). Requests to bill a third party will not be accepted once the semester has ended.

What happens if I fail to drop before the published tuition deadline?

Old Dominion University's policy is very clear that you will be responsible for the financial obligation regardless of your class attendance if you fail to drop a class within published deadlines. Please refer to the Registrar's web site, www.odu.edu/registrar, or LEO Online for additional details on how to drop or withdraw from classes.

How can I get a duplicate copy of my bill, or a statement of payment for reimbursement purposes?

Secure self-service access is provided through LEO Online (www.leonline.odu.edu). Many employers will accept this statement for reimbursement purposes. PIN required.

I have a debt to the University; can I get a transcript?

No. The University will not allow a student to register, incur additional charges or add a course, issue a degree, release a transcript of grades or a grade report, honor requests for enrollment verifications or other certifications, permit deferred payment arrangements, release a diploma, or allow access to other student services until all debts are paid in full.

When would I receive a financial penalty and why is the percentage so high?

The date tuition is due is a set date. However, unlike many other universities, Old Dominion will not cancel your registration based on nonpayment of tuition. Students who do not pay on time risk the consequences of financial penalties.

Past due accounts are subject to financial penalties. At 30 days past due, a late penalty of 10% of the outstanding balance is assessed. The late penalty indicates that your account is past due. Unless you resolve the debt, the University will advance the matter to the next step in the collection process, and you risk tarnishing your credit rating. Once an account is 90 days or more past due, repayment arrangements must be made directly with the collection agency, and the account holder bears the costs associated with collection efforts. Effective April 1, 2011, the cost associated with collection efforts is 25% of the outstanding balance, which is the standard and customary amount for the collection industry.
