

Associate Director of Military & Veteran Education (Washington State)

Old Dominion University, a dynamic public research institution based in Norfolk, Va. with offices located in the Kitsap WA area, invites applications for a full-time Associate Director of Military & Veteran Education. Reporting to the Washington State Director for Distance Learning for Old Dominion University, the Associate Director of Military & Veteran Education administers enrollment management activities including academic advising, and manages site operations as assigned in order to facilitate development and expansion of University programs and student populations on the military bases in North-West Washington and as appropriate throughout the state.

Qualifications: Master's degree in a related field with several years of experience in a military educational environment. Applicants must have knowledge of student recruitment, admissions, registration, academic advising, retention, graduation, VA benefits, and automated military student support systems.

An application letter, resume, and contact information for three professional references should be mailed to: Military Distance Learning Washington Associate Director of Military and Veteran Education Search, C/O David Chase, Search Committee Chair, Distance Learning, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA 23529 or Email: dchase@odu.edu Review of applications will begin February 10, 2012 and continue until the position is filled.

Old Dominion University is an equal opportunity, affirmative action institution and requires compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.