

Education

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

INSTRUCTOR

Old Dominion University's College of Business & Public Administration seeks applicants for a full-time Instructor in the Management Department, to teach various management courses beginning July 25, 2012. Preference will be given to candidates who possess an MBA from an AACSB accredited program and have taught management courses at the college level. The candidate should have experience in the design and delivery of televised as well as traditional courses. The position requires that the person teach the equivalent of 12 hours (4 courses) per semester. Submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae or resume, names and contact information for three references, and student opinion surveys for those courses taught to: Dr. Paul J. Champagne, Management Department, 2132 Constant Hall, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA 23529. Telephone: (757) 683-5849, e-mail: pchampag@odu.edu. Review of applicants will begin February 3, 2012 and continue until the position is filled. Old Dominion University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and requires compliance with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.