

Library Services & Resources for ODU Graduate Students

Library Homepage: www.lib.odu.edu

Under the heading Resources for you,

use the drop down menu to choose "graduate students" for links to special services for you

Faculty
Graduate Students
Distance Learners

→COLLECTIONS

260+ databases covering all disciplines, providing access to articles and more 60,000 journal, magazine and newspaper subscriptions online
Dissertations & Theses Full Text database (from ODU and other universities)
Growing collection of academic E-books and DVDs

→RESEARCH ASSISTANCE

Research workshops on Saturday mornings
Other workshops during the week
Consultations with a reference librarian by appointment
Online contact with a subject specialist librarian
Online subject guides and guides on other various topics
Ask-a-Librarian (Email service)
IM a librarian (chat service)

→"HOW TO" GUIDES

Use EndNote
Use Google Scholar
Search electronic resources
Write a dissertation and more

→INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT for GRAs & GTAs

Online help in designing good library assignments
Online help in placing class material on reserve in the library
Online help in linking to full-text articles from Blackboard

→OTHER SERVICES AVAILABLE TO GRAD STUDENTS

Full semester loan of print books (plus hold, recall and renewal services)
New Item Notification Service
Request materials free via Interlibrary Loan & Document Delivery Services
Free Tidewater Consortium borrower's card to checking out materials at area college libraries
Locking research carrels (depending on availability)
Use of Digital Services Center for scanning, web projects
Subscription to News@ODU Libraries Blog and Facebook page for updates on hours & events

January 2010