

Old Dominion University Counseling Institutes in Italy and Ireland

Each year, Old Dominion University offers four study abroad institutes for counselors and counseling students in Italy and Ireland. Each institute is reasonably priced and lasts from 9 days to two weeks. Institute fees include 3 undergraduate or graduate credits or 30-45 continuing education hours. Included in the fees are housing, most meals, seminars by Italian or Irish counselors, health insurance, and outings to tourist attractions. Round trip airfare to Rome or Dublin is not included and must be arranged individually.
