

OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY
University Policies and Procedures

2001 - NEWS MEDIA LIAISON

Statement: The Office of Institutional Advancement is the University's official news media liaison office. It is responsible for handling all requests from the media for information concerning the University. All inquiries from the media should be referred to the Office of Institutional Advancement. This office will disseminate information to the media and at the President's direction, will designate the appropriate spokespeople to comment on news items about the University.

Responsibility: Office of Institutional Advancement

Authorization: Joseph M. Marchello, President

Date: December 1, 1988