Welcome to the Interdisciplinary Studies Teacher Preparation Program (IDS-TP) designed for undergraduate students who desire to teach early childhood education, elementary education, and special education. Our state-approved, nationally-accredited teacher licensure program provides prospective early childhood, elementary, and special education teachers with a unique, multi-disciplinary, liberal arts and sciences degree.

Our Early Childhood and Primary/Elementary Education concentration areas are 4+1 BS/MS programs, leading to graduate study in the Darden College of Education. These concentration areas are the undergraduate portion of five year programs that are designed so that students seamlessly transition into a graduate program in the Darden College of Education upon completion of their B.S. degree. Your graduate work will culminate in a Master of Science degree in either Elementary Education or Early Childhood Education and licensure to teach in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

In order to meet the Commonwealth of Virginia's need for well-trained and well-qualified special education teachers, our Special Education concentrations offer licensure to teach with the B.S. degree. Teacher candidates electing these concentrations will now be eligible for Licensure to teach Special Education, K-12, General Curriculum or Early Childhood birth to 5 and the Adapted Curriculum K-12. Teacher candidates in the general curriculum special education concentrations also will be highly qualified in either elementary education content or secondary English content.

Our IDS-TP curriculum reflects the academic content and professional education coursework required by the Commonwealth of Virginia teacher licensure guidelines. We recognize that it can be a challenge to maneuver successfully through all our program requirements, which include general education courses, field experiences, content specialty courses, and the development of discipline-specific skills and dispositions which reflect a commitment to teaching and learning as well as lifelong professional growth and development. Additionally, as your undergraduate program advisors, we are here to assist you in better understanding and appreciating our multi-disciplinary curriculum and the labyrinth of licensure-driven program requirements and assessments that you must meet. Therefore, our goal is to provide you with a supportive advising environment as you begin your journey towards becoming a teacher.

Again, welcome to our program and best wishes for a successful academic year.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Hoyes Esinhart
Director, Interdisciplinary Studies,
Teacher Preparation Program

UTEP CONTINUANCE POLICY

Once individuals are admitted to the undergraduate teacher education program, they are expected to continue to maintain the same caliber of academic achievement during the remainder of their program. This will ensure that teacher candidates remain on track with projected graduation dates. In the event that a candidate experiences academic difficulty immediately prior to enrollment in a practicum course, the policies below will govern. Academic difficulty is defined as not meeting the minimum grade point average (GPA) program requirement or earning a grade or grades that do not meet the candidate’s program requirements the first time the course was taken.

GPA below minimum program requirement: In order to register for a practicum course, a candidate must demonstrate that it is mathematically possible that the GPA deficiency can be resolved by the end of the semester in which practicum will be taken. This may require additional counseling with an academic advisor.

Grade earned below minimum program requirement: In order to register for a practicum course, a candidate MUST replace any deficient grade the NEXT semester that the course is available. Teacher candidates will be able to enroll simultaneously in both the replacement class and practicum if that is the next available semester for the course. Candidates will be able to take practicum PRIOR to replacement of the deficient grade ONLY IF the course that needs repeating is not available to the candidate until after the semester when practicum would be scheduled. This policy will also apply if the teacher candidate has multiple courses that require repeating. In the event that the teacher candidate has a posted grade of Incomplete, the outstanding course work must be finished by the end of the semester in which practicum is taken. Re-enrollment in the course is NOT required when an “I” is assigned.

Under all circumstances, grade and GPA requirements MUST be met before enrollment in the teacher candidate internship (student teaching).

PRE-REGISTRATION

Advising appointments are required every March and October. You will receive a newsletter via an email alerting you to check the Course Schedule for the upcoming semester(s) and schedule an appointment. This email should arrive prior to spring and fall break week.

Appointments should be made early to ensure the removal of your Degree Plan Holds BEFORE pre-registration. When requesting an appointment, please be prepared to provide the following information: Your Name, UIN, and a number where you can be reached.

Hampton Roads students may see an advisor on main campus or at a Higher Education Center. Please Note: Main Campus advising appointments cannot be scheduled via an email request or through MyAdvisor: doing so will result in a delay. You must call 757-683-4044 or visit BAL 3036.

Online students will meet with a member of the College of Arts & Letters Advising Team and should consult with their advisor regarding advising policies.

PRE-REGISTRATION CANCELLATION POLICY:

During most of the year, we request you provide us with a 24 hour notice if you are not able to keep your appointment so that we are able to schedule another student in that time slot. We also reserve the right to reschedule your appointment if you arrive more than 10 minutes late.

However, our goal to remove Degree Plan Holds before Pre-Registration Week requires we meet with hundreds of students within a short period.

Students who fail to provide a 24 hour notice before missing an appointment during peak advising time (March-April and October-November) may not be rescheduled until Pre-Registration Week.
Students who fail to keep an appointment without any advanced notification will be flagged as a NO-SHOW and may not be rescheduled until AFTER Pre-Registration Week.

All ODU students who have their overall GPA fall below a 2.0 will be subject to the undergraduate continuance policy found at http://www.odu.edu/continuance

- I understand I am limited to a total of five (5) courses that may be used for grade forgiveness. Grade forgiveness will not be extended to courses originally taken elsewhere, including institutions with which ODU has consortia arrangements. I understand it is my responsibility to meet all deadlines required by this program, Teacher Education Services, the College of Arts & Letters, the Darden College of Education, and the university.

I understand I must meet the Technical Standards required for students seeking a B.S. in IDS-TP. I have received a copy of the Technical Standards and will contact the Office of Educational Accessibility as indicated in those Technical Standards if I believe I do not meet one or more of these standards.

I understand that I must meet with my IDS-TP advisor every March and every October. I am expected to come to this appointment prepared with both my curriculum sheet and my DegreeWorks plan. Teacher candidates should make appointments promptly upon receiving the department newsletter to ensure removal of the Degree Plan Holds BEFORE pre-registration. Campus appointments last approximately 30-45 minutes and require a 24-hour cancellation notice. Campus teacher candidates who do not provide proper cancellation or who show up more than 10-minutes late for their appointments risk not being seen that day and not being re-scheduled until after pre-registration. Online teacher candidates should contact their student success advisor regarding appointment policies.

CONCENTRATION DESCRIPTIONS

The Bachelor of Science Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies – Teacher Preparation Program has 5 concentrations. Two concentrations, referred to as 4+1 concentrations, require completing both a B.S degree in the College of Arts & Letters as well as graduate coursework in the Darden College of Education in order to complete licensure requirements. The three special education concentrations complete licensure requirements within the B.S. degree. All 5 concentrations require a multi-disciplinary subject content area, grades of C or higher in all required courses, 2.8 overall, major, content, and professional education grade point averages, state approved scores that meet the prescribed VBOE admission assessment for approved Virginia teacher preparation programs requirement, complete the admission interview process pursuant to Teacher Education Council policy, and admission to the Undergraduate Teacher Education Program. For individual concentration descriptions and requirements, click the links below:

PEEM- 4+1 Primary Elementary Education Concentration - There is no licensure with the B.S. degree. Student Teaching and licensure to teach PK-6 are completed at the graduate level through the Darden College of Education. Available online for students in the commonwealth of Virginia and the state Washington only.

ECHL - 4 + 1 Early Childhood Education Concentration - There is no licensure with the B.S. degree. Student Teaching and licensure to teach PK-3 are completed at the graduate level through the Darden College of Education. Not available online.

SECA - B.S with Licensure Special Education: Early Childhood (Birth to 5) and Adapted Curriculum Concentration (K-12) - This is a B.S. with licensure program. Available online for students only in the commonwealth of Virginia.

SPEL - B.S with Licensure Special Education: General Curriculum (K-12) with Highly Qualified Designation in Elementary Education– This is a B.S. with licensure program. Available online for students in the commonwealth of Virginia and the state of Washington only.

SPEN - B.S with Licensure Special Education: General Curriculum (K-12) with Highly Qualified Designation in Elementary Education and Secondary English - This is a B.S. with licensure program. Not available online.

APPROVED PROGRAM COMPLETER

All courses, assessments, and student teaching MUST be completed to be considered an approved program completer and the College Verification Form for a Virginia Department of Education license to be signed YES. Choosing to accept a full time position instead of completing all education and/or content courses, all required assessments for licensure, and/or student teaching required for the Old Dominion University state-approved program will result in the college verification form for a Virginia Department of Education license being signed as "NO, you did not complete a state-approved preparation program". If you plan to relocate outside of Virginia, it is highly recommended that you complete the ODU state-approved program (all content and education courses, required assessments, and student teaching) components needed for licensure. The vast majority of states that you will be relocating to will require a College Verification Form stating that you have "completed a state-approved preparation program", including student teaching. Experience in public schools or teaching on a provisional license, does not meet the requirement of student teaching as a "state-approved program"

PEEM Curriculum Sheet

PEEM Finish in 4 + 1 Plan

PEEM Description

The Interdisciplinary Studies - Teacher Preparation Program (IDS-TP) in ODU’s College of Arts and Letters provides teacher candidates with a multidisciplinary curriculum reflecting academic content areas and professional education coursework required by the Commonwealth of Virginia’s teacher licensure regulations. The program’s mission is to prepare future educators as professionals through the provision of general education courses, early field experiences, content specialty courses, and the development of discipline-specific skills and attitudes which reflect a commitment to teaching and learning as well as lifelong professional growth and development. The program aims to promote the success of the university’s richly diverse community and the development of students as professional educators, leaders, and critically engaged citizens. Through these efforts, students become innovative and creative educators who make a difference for diverse learners, from birth through adulthood, in schools and communities, both local and global. The IDS-TP program engages students in the community both at the undergraduate and graduate level due to its emphasis on early field experiences. In the Primary/Elementary concentration, teacher candidates will participate in a 30 hour observation and two practicum experiences totaling 110 hours as undergraduates and a 150 hour practicum experience as graduate students prior to student teaching.

The IDS-TP Primary/Elementary Concentration is a 4+1 BS/MS program. The "4" refers to the Bachelor of Science Degree. Teacher candidates first will complete a minimum of 120 undergraduate credit hours and receive a bachelor's degree from the College of Arts and Letters. Students will not be able to teach at the conclusion of the undergraduate portion of the program since it does NOT include licensure, student teaching or the additional assessments required for licensure at the BS level. The "1" refers to the graduate degree or post baccalaureate portion of the program. Upon award of their bachelor's degree, teacher candidates will be able to apply for admission to the 5th-year Master's program offered by the Darden College of Education. This 31 graduate credit hour program includes student teaching and can be completed in as little as 3 full-time semesters. Students apply for licensure to teach PK-6 at the conclusion of the 5th year portion of the curriculum. If students do not wish to pursue a master's degree along with Licensure, they may elect to complete licensure requirements in the Post Baccalaureate Endorsement program offered by the Darden College of Education. This non-degree PBE program includes student teaching and can be completed in as little as 2 semesters.

NOTE: Students who complete the post-baccalaureate endorsement program are not eligible to enter the 5th-year accelerated Master’s program. Students may be eligible to enter other Master’s degree programs provided they meet admission requirements.

Prescribed VBOE admission assessment for approved Virginia teacher preparation programs requirement, a background clearance check, and admission to the undergraduate teacher education program are required for continuance and graduation from the program at the undergraduate level. Passing scores on Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects: Reading and Language Arts, Mathematics, Social Studies, & Science Assessment, Virginia Communication and Literacy Assessment, Reading for Virginia Educators Assessment, a background clearance check (if expired), first aid/CPR/AED training, child abuse & neglect recognition training, and dyslexia awareness certification are required at the graduate level prior to student teaching.

SPEL Description

In order to meet the Commonwealth of Virginia's need for well-trained and well-qualified special education teachers, ODU's College of Arts and Letters' Interdisciplinary Studies Program offers a Bachelor of Science degree with endorsement in special education general curriculum, K-12. Teacher candidates in this special education concentration also will be highly qualified in the elementary content area. This concentration is designed to prepare professionals who are able to develop and implement appropriate educational programs for students who manifest mild disabilities. The concentration combines coursework, supervised practica, and student teaching internships to facilitate the integration of theory and practice in the development of innovative interventions applicable for individuals with special needs from kindergarten through adulthood in both public and private facilities. The concentration is committed to a philosophy of serving as a catalyst to promote awareness, understanding, and acceptance of individuals with disabilities. The course work focuses on the improvement of the quality and scope of educational and related services available to individuals with disabilities from infancy to adulthood. Teacher candidates are prepared to work effectively with children, adolescents, and adults who require special educational services. Classroom instruction is supplemented by field experiences with children, adolescents, and adults in a variety of settings.

* If you live in Hampton Roads, you also can take classes on main campus or at one of ODU's local higher education centers (HEC). Classes on main campus will have a building name and room number in the Location field. For classes at the Virginia Beach HEC, Peninsula HEC, or Tri-Cities HEC, look for Location codes VBCTR, PNCTR, or TCCTR.

What do the WEB, DSC and WC codes mean?

WC courses are delivered through WebEx web conferencing software.
DSC courses are delivered through 2-way conferencing software like Cisco Jabber.
WEB courses (with a meeting day and time) are delivered through Adobe Connect.
WEB courses without a day or time are asynchronous and accessed through ODU's Personal Learning Environment (PLE).
Q: Will I be able to finish this program and keep my full-time, 8am-5pm, Monday through Friday job?

A: Daytime availability is required to complete this program. Your work schedule will require flexibility for attending courses, doing field experiences, and meeting with your advisor every spring and every fall semester. University office hours are 8am-5pm Monday through Friday and public school hours are 7-8am-3:30-4:30pm Monday through Friday.

Q: I was told my associate degree would meet all my general education requirements. Why do I still have so many 100-200 level courses to complete?

A: Unlike the majority of programs offered by Old Dominion University, an approved A.S. Degree does not automatically meet all university general education requirements. A number of general education courses in our program are also meeting state licensure requirements.

Q: I have taken courses at another institution that are exactly like ones required for this program. Why did they transfer as electives?

A: If you would like to have a transfer course re-evaluated for transfer equivalency credit, please provide your advisor with an official course description and syllabus for the specific course. Your advisor will work with the chair of the department to seek a re-evaluation of the transfer credit that had been awarded by Admissions.

Q: Why does Degree Works say I am missing requirements that my advisor told me were already met?

A: Please help us correct any inaccuracies in your record by comparing your Degree Works record to your official curriculum evaluation and when you meet with your advisor, let him/her know if there are any inconsistencies. For example, if you received credit for PSYC 203S in place of SPED 313 because you completed it prior to August 26, 2011 and this substitution is not reflected on your Degree Works record, we need to know that. If you took HIST 396 instead of one of the other History electives per our approval, and it does not show up on Degree Works as meeting the upper level History elective, we need to know that too. We want to make sure there are no delays when it comes time for you to graduate! We appreciate your help in updating the registrar’s records.

Q: I can’t register for classes because I have holds on my accounts. How can I have those removed?

A: See holds for information on removing holds. Additionally, if you view your holds from the “My Status Alerts” you will see a description of the holds and contact information for resolving them. Advisors can only remove the Degree Plan Hold. Please read the “Degree Plan Hold” section of this handbook.

Q: I am trying to register for a class that is already closed, can my advisor override me into the course?

A: The instructor teaching the course is the ONLY person who can authorize an override. She or he can do so by registering you into it her or himself or signing an ADD/DROP/WITHDRAW form that you will then take to the registrar’s office.

Q: The section of a class I need is closed, but I can see seats available for other sections. Is it possible to register for one of those seats?

A: The individual CRN's do not accurately reflect the overall capacity of the courses: the cross list seats reflect the overall capacity and once the overall capacity is reached, only the instructor can authorize and override.
Q: Why don’t other teacher prep students have to take the same courses that I do?
A: Interdisciplinary Studies – Teacher preparation currently has 5 concentrations with teacher candidates working out of 7 different catalogs. Candidates must comply with the most current requirements approved by the Virginia Board of Education, Old Dominion University, the College of Arts & Letters, and the Darden College of Education.

Q: What tests will I need to take and when will I need to take them?
A: Please refer to the Required Assessments section of this handbook.

Q: I thought I needed to take Praxis II. Why don’t I see it in the “Required Assessments” section of this handbook?
A: Effective July 1, 2015, ETS (Educational Testing Service) renamed the Praxis II tests to the Praxis Subject Assessments. The Praxis Subject Assessment required for all IDS-TP majors is called “Elementary Education: Multiple Subjects.” Prior to student teaching, IDS-TP majors must pass each subtest in Reading & Language Arts, Mathematics, Social Studies, & Science.

Q: What if I took Praxis II before July 1, 2015?
A: Passing Praxis II scores earned prior to July 1, 2015 will continue to be accepted. Click HERE for a complete list of VDOE approved scores.

Q: I’ve already had a background check done through my place of employment, do I still need to do one for ODU?
A: All questions concerning Old Dominion University’s Background Clearance should be directed to the Teacher Education Services- 757-683-3348.

Q: I already work in a school or daycare. Can that count for observation, practicum hours or student teaching?
A: Although you have gained experience in the school by substitute teaching we cannot apply those hours towards ODU’s state approved teacher preparation program. The hands-on experiences you will get with the approved program are supervised by teachers who are licensed in the area you are seeking licensure. The student teaching experience must be supervised by an ODU supervisor based on the ODU conceptual framework and accreditation guidelines in order for you to complete a state approved teacher preparation program and to qualify for the Virginia teaching license.

Q: What is the difference between Observations, Practicums, & Student Teaching?
A: Observations, Practicums, and Student Teacher are field experiences developed to provide candidates the opportunity to work with students of all cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds and with diverse learning needs. All field experience are coordinated by the Teacher Education Services in collaboration with each school division and require a completed Background Clearance and an Online Placement Request. Additionally, practicums and student teaching require admission to the Undergraduate Teacher Education Program (UTEP).

OBSERVATIONS

- ECHL candidates will participate in 30 hours of observation in TLED 474.
- PEEM candidates will participate in 30 hours of observation in TLED 301.
- SECA candidates will participate in 30 hours of observation in SPED 440.
PRACTICUMS

- ECHL candidates will participate in 40 practicum hours in TLED 492, & 40 practicum hours in TLED 493.

- SPEL & SPEN candidates will participate in 45 practicum hours in SPED 415, & 45 practicum hours in SPED 403.

The online placement request should be submitted immediately after registering for the respective course. Allow 4-6 weeks for this placement to be processed by the requested school district.

TEACHER CANDIDATE INTERNSHIP (STUDENT TEACHING)

Student teaching is the culminating experience of the approved teacher education program. Prospective student teachers must apply and meet all criteria in order to be eligible to student teach. Applications for student teaching are due on the following dates - For fall semester February 1, for spring semester August 1. All student teaching requirements and evaluation tools can be located in the Teacher Candidate Internship Handbook.

- ECHL candidates participate in a full academic year of student teaching in a residency model at the graduate level.
- PEEM candidates will participate in an additional 150 practicum hours and complete 14 weeks of student teaching at the graduate level.
- SECA candidate will participate in 13 weeks of student teaching in SPED 486.
- SPEL, & SPEN candidates will participate in 14 weeks of student teaching in SPED 486.

Teacher candidates applying for a placement are required to submit the placement application with a check or money order in accordance to the following fees:

1. Application fee submitted by established deadline is $25.00
2. Application fee submitted 30 days late* after the deadline is $35.00
3. Application fee submitted 60 days late* after the deadline is $45.00

THE APPLICATION FEE IS NON-REFUNDABLE *Applications received late after the established deadlines are not guaranteed a placement for the semester requested.

Q: Are any grants or scholarships available?

A: TEACH grant information is available for students who have already been admitted to the Undergraduate Teacher Education Program through the Teacher Education Services.

Q: Will other states accept my Virginia teaching license?

A: If you complete ODU’s state approved teacher preparation program with all coursework, assessments and a semester of student teaching then your license will have relative reciprocity. Relative reciprocity means that you can start teaching in another state with the reciprocity agreement, but you may need to fulfill additional requirements required by a particular state, which may be different from the ones required in Virginia.
The Commonwealth of Virginia has reciprocity agreements with the states listed below. However, these agreements are “limited” in scope. While each state will accept the programs for individuals who have completed an approved teacher education program (this includes student teaching or the approved internship for advanced programs) each state may have different testing requirements.
