Provost’s Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher Award

This award honors individuals who have exemplified excellence in research and or scholarship while undergraduates at Old Dominion University. The University Undergraduate Research Committee will make awards based on the uniqueness of research/scholarship, longevity of experience, contributions to the discipline, and presentations, publications, and/or performances. The award recipients will receive a $250 cash prize and be recognized at the spring “Student Awards and Reception Dinner.”

Up to two winners may be selected by a faculty committee.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Junior or Senior in the fall 2014
- Student in Good Academic Standing

Nominations materials should provide the following:

Description of the student’s involvement in undergraduate research projects (preference will be given to students with sustained involvement in undergraduate research)

Evidence of the quality of the research either through presentation at a professional conference, publication, exhibitions, performance, journal article, contribution to a book, external research/scholarship awards, etc.

Letter of Support from one or more of the student’s research mentors

Sample of Student’s Research (e.g., paper, thesis, publication, portfolio) Max. 30 pages
