

Career Decisions, Your Values & You

Want to live comfortably with a good salary...but the helping professions are important to you?

Want to make difference in society...but not sure how as a communications major?

Interested in technology...but dislike math?

CMC can help! This two part session helps you gain insight into how your personal beliefs, experiences, values and skills can tie into your career choices - whether you have a goal in mind yet or not.

PART 1: Attend ONE session beginning:

Thursday's 3 - 4pm
February 5, 19 - Williamsburg Rm
March 5 - Cyber Career Center
April 2, 16 - Cyber Career Center

PART 2: Attend ONE session beginning:

Thursday's 3 - 4pm
February 12, 26 - Williamsburg Rm
March 19 - Cyber Career Center
April 9, 23 - Cyber Career Center

Get an overview of the career decision making process, ways to identify your values and skills, connections to your peers, and free interest inventories that will give you a personal profile and career fit ideas.

Visit Your ODU CareerLink Account to RSVP
www.odu.edu/cmc

Old Dominion University
Career Management Center
2202 Webb University Center
Norfolk, Virginia 23529
757-683-4388 cmc@odu.edu