Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) Appeal Form

STUDENT NAME (print): ____________________________ UIN: ____________________________

The University knows that uncontrollable events (death of a family member, illness, e.g.) happen in a student’s life and that some students have trouble adjusting to college. The University will consider special circumstances that happen in a student’s life such as death of a family member, student illness, and transition to college issues that result in unusual mitigating circumstances, being called to the military, etc. However, each student must describe what impact the circumstance had on academics, what the student has done to address the impact and how the student plans to be successful. If the student is not yet prepared to vigorously focus on academics with assistance if necessary, the student should not submit an appeal.

If the University approves an appeal, the student must adhere to the academic plan outlined within the appeal. Failure to meet the outlined academic plan by the end of the term for which the appeal is granted, will result in the loss of financial aid eligibility.

Identify the semester for which you are submitting your appeal: Fall 20____ Spring 20____ Summer 20____

Step 1: Your Reason for appeal - Select the reason(s) for your appeal (refer to the SAP suspension notification sent to you by the Financial Aid Office):

- Grade Point Average (GPA): Your GPA is below the minimum requirement (2.0 Undergraduate, 3.0 Graduate)
- Completion Rate: Your cumulative completion (overall attempted vs. successfully completed credit hours) rate is below 67% (undergraduate) and 80% (graduate).

Step 2: Your Appeal Letter and Supporting Documentation - Attach the completed form that clearly explains your situation.

The appeal letter/form provides opportunity for you to describe the impact and the circumstance(s) that prevented you from meeting the SAP standards. It outlines what will change that will lead to your SAP success and it should outline the timeframe of your extenuating circumstance(s) for the period that you were unable to meet the SAP requirements.

Extenuating or Mitigating Circumstances:
- Death in the family. State how this person was related to you (i.e. parent, spouse, sibling, etc.).
- Illness or injury to the student and or immediate family member.
- Emotional or mental health issue (for student) that required professional care.
- Other unusual circumstances beyond your control (transition that may lead to: depression, anxiety, and other problems that can be documented)

Reminder: Supporting documentation is required and must be noted during the timeframe referenced in the appeal. Documentation should be secured from an objective third party (e.g., medical bills, death certificate, counselor, teacher/professor, religious leader, or unbiased third party).
Step 3: Your Academic Plan - As part of the appeal, a student must document extenuating circumstances that prevented him or her from meeting the requirements as well as develop and agree to an Academic Plan leading to graduation. Complete the plan below and meet with your academic advisor, so that you can agree on the specific steps and performance that you need in order to complete your degree or certificate and meet the Satisfactory Academic Progress standards.

RE:     Sap Appeal Explanation Statement

What happened?

I was involved in a car accident on October 12, 2015. I was in the hospital for two weeks because of a broken leg. Then I needed to have physical therapy every day for six weeks. This interfered with my ability to attend classes on a regular basis. I was unable to complete the fall 2015 semester and this affected my academic progress.

What has changed?

My leg has healed and I feel confident that I am able to continue my coursework and improve my academic progress. I intend to register and repeat the coursework in the classes that I failed. I will also take the workshop offered through Academic Success Center called Second Chances. I will also use the assignment planner on the library website to help me stay on track.

Attached is documentation verifying my accident:

- A note from my doctor showing that I was under his care during the above time, and why. The note also shows that my doctor released me to return to school on January 1, 2015.
- A copy of my hospital bill showing the dates of my stay.
- A statement from my physical therapist indicating my therapy schedule.
