E. POLICY STATEMENT

Old Dominion University believes in an environment that is conducive to work; therefore, the workplace shall not be used in lieu of childcare. Office and work space is not designed with the safety of children in mind. There are safety hazards and possible risks of University and supervisory liability in the event of accident or injury. Although the University strives to be a family-friendly environment, it is not appropriate to bring children to work as a substitute for making arrangements for regular childcare while at work.

Minor children and family members are not prohibited from being in the workplace during University-sponsored events intended for children and/or families or community participation.
F. PROCEDURES

1. There may be occasions when brief visits by minor children are necessary. These visits are at the supervisor’s discretion and the employee should receive prior permission before bringing a minor child to the workplace. In these circumstances, minor children will be the responsibility of the employee while in the workplace.

2. Supervisors may make an exception for a temporary, unforeseen emergency, but no employee may have a child in the workplace without the supervisor’s permission or use the workplace as an alternative to childcare or for any other purpose. As necessary, supervisors may grant leave or flexible hours, at their discretion, in order for employees to respond to emergencies or unforeseen circumstances.

3. Employees and supervisors must consider issues of safety, confidentiality, disruption of operations, disruption of services, disruption to other employees, appropriateness and liability posed by the presence of the minor children in the workplace.
   a. No minor child may ever be allowed into an area that is potentially hazardous.
   b. Children exhibiting symptoms of potentially contagious illnesses shall not be brought into the workplace.
