

SCOTT A. REIGHARD

English Teacher

Scott A. Reighard began his Naval career in 1992 as a reservist in West Palm Beach, FL. Over the course of his 18 year career, Chief Petty Officer Reighard has worked in various capacities from supply to security. He currently fills the billet as unit chief for NR LHDRON4 in Norfolk, VA. Other notable assignments came with: NR NSF Sugar Grove (2005-2009), COMSUBLANT (2001-2005), Force Protection/LEPS (1995-1999). He was activated after 9/11 and served 9 months on active duty at Yorktown NWS serving as a security petty officer.

Chief Reighard is currently an English teacher at Northside High School in Roanoke. He has been a nominee for several teaching awards including Disney's Teacher of the Year Award, and The Golden Apple Teacher's Award.

He is the teacher sponsor for a community based volunteer club that provides various activities that educate students about environmental and health issues. They also raise money for victims of catastrophes and causes such as the 2004 tsunami in Indonesia, Hurricane Katrina, and students with terminal diseases. He has coached football (wide receivers/defensive backs), tennis (head coach) and cross country (assistant head coach). More recently he has coached his son's recreational football teams. Chief Reighard also participates in triathlons, duathlons and 5K's. He is an active member of the Roanoke Valley Triathlon Club, the VFW, DAV, NPCA, and The Arbor Day Foundation.

Chief Reighard obtained his B.A. in English from Texas A&M-Commerce in 1986, and was awarded his Masters in Education from the University of Virginia, majoring in Supervision and Administration in 2004.

Chief Reighard is also a published author. In 2007 he published JAMESTOWN: JOURNEY BACK IN TIME, a young adult historical fiction novel about a 12 year old boy who winds up back in the Jamestown settlement in the early years. Also, in 2010 Chief Reighard published THE REUNION REAPER, an adult suspense novel about a killer who is killing former classmates he graduated with 25 years ago. Ironically, the detective on the case just happens to be one of those former classmates. Both books are available on Amazon.com. He is currently working on the follow up to THE REUNION REAPER.

Chief Reighard is married to the former Jennifer Ryan and has two children, Kathryn and Kyle. To find out more about Scott A. Reighard, visit: <http://ourvalley.org/teacher-writes-murder-novel/> or <http://scottareighard.webs.com/>.
