

Latin 102
Probātiō tertiā
Recēnsiō (review)

This review sheet is indicative, but may not exhaustively list all things covered on the exam.

The written exam will consist of a cultural section and two (2) reading sections.

- I. Culture (T/F).
 - A. Study the Studia Rōmāna sections from Capitula XVII-XIX.
- II. Reading.
 - A. Comprehension (answer in English).
 - B. Translation.
 - C. Grammar.
 1. adjectives and their degrees
 2. irregular adjectives
 3. adverbs formation
 4. verb parsing
 5. GNCing nouns

Review exercises:

- I. Conjugate the following verbs in the present and imperfect tenses:
 1. esse
 2. posse
- II. Conjugate the following verbs in the present and imperfect tenses, in both active and passive voice.
 1. amāre
 2. tenēre
 3. legere
 4. capere (-iō)
 5. pūnīre
- III. Transform the following positive degree adjectives into comparatives, then superlatives:
 1. bonus, -a, -um,
 2. pulcher, -chra, -chrum
 3. gracilis, -e
 4. levis, -e
 5. malus-, -a, um
 6. parvus, -a, -um
 7. multī, -ae, -a
- IV. Transform the above positive degree adjectives into positive degree adverbs.
- V. Translate into Latin the following English sentences:
 1. Marcus is worse now than Julius was then.
 2. My dog is small, but your dog is smaller.
 3. My daughter's voice is the prettiest of all the girls.
 4. Your son fights well, but my son knows how to read Latin and Greek.
 5. My father is richer than your father. He is the richest person in all the lands.