

Latin 202

prīdiē Īdūs Iānuāriās MMDCCCLXXV A.U.C.

Nathan Owens

Old Dominion University

Spring 2022

1 Announcements

2 Rēs grammaticae

- adverbia
- fruor, fruī

Announcements

Announcements

- Questions? Comments?

adverbia

Third declension adjectives in -ns form their adverbs with -nter:

- Iūlius tardē ex agrīs revertit hodiē, quod nimis diū ambulāvit. (ll.12–13)
- ... multīs agricolīs praesum ac dīlīgenter cūrō ut colōnī agrōs meōs bene colant. (ll.33-34)

adverbia

Third declension adjectives in -ns form their adverbs with -nter:

- Iūlius tardē ex agrīs revertit hodiē, quod nimis diū ambulāvit. (ll.12–13)
Julius returned late from the fields today because he walked for too long.
- ... multīs agricolīs praesum ac dīlīgenter cūrō ut colōnī agrōs meōs bene colant. (ll.33-34)

adverbia

Third declension adjectives in -ns form their adverbs with -nter:

- Iūlius tardē ex agrīs revertit hodiē, quod nimis diū ambulāvit. (ll.12–13)
Julius returned late from the fields today because he walked for too long.
- ... multīs agricolīs praesum ac dīlīgenter cūrō ut colōnī agrōs meōs bene colant. (ll.33-34)
... I am in charge of many farmers and diligently take care that the tenant farmers cultivate my fields well.

fruor, fruī

The deponent verb fruor, fruī, fructum takes an ablative object. This ablative is an ablative of instrument, just as it is with the deponent verb utor, utī, usum:

- “otiō fruor” (1.23)

fruor, fruī

The deponent verb fruor, fruī, fructum takes an ablative object. This ablative is an ablative of instrument, just as it is with the deponent verb utor, utī, usum:

- “otiō fruor” (1.23)
I delight in leisure.

VALETE!