

Society for Applied Anthropology Annual Conference

Coastal Virginia and African American Sociocultural Ecologies

Hosted by EVMS Diversity & Inclusion and ODU Institute for the Humanities

March 22, 2021 at 10 AM to 11:45 AM

Joanne M.
Braxton, PhD, M.
Div (William & Mary)

Notes from “The Clearing”: History,
Memory, and Healing
in the Afro-Christian Context

Linda Janet
Holmes, M.P.A.
(Writer,
Independent Scholar, and Curator)

Remembering Black
Midwives: Pillars of Community Support

Avi Santo, PhD (ODU)

Digitizing African American Stories of Place and Community in Norfolk: The
Potentialities and Pitfalls
of Digital Story Mapping

Chief Lynette
Allston
(Nottoway Indian Tribe of Virginia)

Connections- Native
American and African American Experiences

Barbara
Hamm Lee (Executive Producer/Host)

Creating Space for the African American Voice

Andrew Plunk,
PhD, MPH
(EVMS)

Virtual Community Engagement and
COVID-19: Giving
Marginalized
Communities a Voice During the Pandemic