

OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY

INSTITUTE FOR THE HUMANITIES

Presents:

FALL 2021 JUNIOR FACULTY FORUM

The Junior Faculty Forum is an annual tradition for Old Dominion University's College of Arts and Letters. The JFF looks a bit different this year, but we are happy to announce that we will hold the event this November 10th from 4:30 to 6pm. Please mark your calendar as this is an important means of getting to know our newer faculty members. We will be holding the event in the Yetiv Auditorium for social distancing purposes. Seats will be marked and once they have been taken no more seats will be available. The event will also be livestreamed via Zoom.

Featured Speakers:

Dr. Michiko Kaneyasu

Assistant Professor of World
Languages & Cultures

Conversational grammar: The case of the Japanese epistemic modal desho

Dr. Amy M. Lindstrom

Assistant Professor of English

Bicycle Crashes and Pear Thieves:
Language Variation in Spoken Narratives

Dr. Elizabeth Fretwell

Assistant Professor of History

Tailoring identities: Artisanal clothing production and decolonization in Benin, West Africa
