I shall now take a vote of the Committee. All those who agree that only lawfully exempted matters and specifically only the business matter stated in the motion convening the closed session were discussed in closed session say “aye.” All those who disagree say “nay.” The certification was approved by roll-call vote (Ayes: Bradley, Corn, Dabney, Harris, Jones, Kemper, Pitts, Smith; Nays: None).

VI. INFORMATION ITEMS

Committee members received information on two requests for leave of absence without compensation. Provost Agho introduced Max Milder from EAB, the Education Advisory Board, who presented research and information related to funding marketing in higher education. EAB has conducted research on marketing and the student journey over the past decade. The organization can help schools generate leads and enroll new students. Mr. Milder discussed the multifaceted efforts and diverse outcomes that come from marketing. He addressed the challenge of comparing and benchmarking marketing budgets across institutions, noting this is difficult to do because universities typically do not release marketing spending information and organizational structures, and needs are so different. He indicated that linking marketing spending to actual student enrollment can also be difficult and added that ODU has an effective marketing plan that is known nationally for its excellence.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:01 a.m.
