21 Days of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, & Justice

September 15-October 15 is National Hispanic and Latinx Heritage Month. The resources below

Day 1: Read
What is Hispanic Heritage Month?

Day 2: Watch
Celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month

Day 3: Reflect
Dolores Huerta: How to Overcome Your Apathy and Find Your Power

Day 4: Read
Hollywood and the Hispanic

Day 5: Listen
Celia Cruz: Azúcar

Day 6: Watch
Paul Ortiz: An African American and Latinx History of the United States

Day 7: Reflect
Guide to Allyship

Day 8: Read
The Long History of Police Violence Against Latinos

Day 9: Read
Introduction to Diversity, Equity, Inclusion & Justice

Day 10: Listen
Music as a Weapon: A Discussion About Garifuna Music

Day 11: Watch
Rita Moreno The Latin Explosion: A New America

Day 12: Reflect
Anna Babel: Who Counts as a Speaker of Language?

Day 13: Engage
Smithsonian Latino Center

Day 14: Read
What Latinx Means and Why the Label is Taking Off
Day 15: Watch
 ¡Printing the Revolution! The Rise an Impact of Chicano Graphics, 1965 to Now
Day 16: Reflect
Brene Brown on Empathy

Day 17: Read
Feeding America: The People and Politics that Bring Food to Our Table

Day 18: Watch
A Conversation About Latinidad

Day 19: Learn
Research the history of your neighborhood or city and the indigenous tribes that resided there

Day 20: Listen
Mongo Santamaria: Afro Blue

Day 21: Watch
Ericka L. Sanchez reads “Saudade”