BLACK WOMEN
COLLEGE STUDENTS
A Guide to Student Success in Higher Education

Felecia Commodore,
Dominique J. Baker, and Andrew T. Arroyo

Delineating key issues, proposing an original student success model, and describing what institutions can do to better support black women students, this important book provides a succinct but comprehensive exploration of this underrepresented and often neglected population on college campuses.

Books will be available for purchase and signing after the event
