Welcome from the Secretary-General

Words cannot express how excited and honored I feel as your host for the 41st annual ODU Model United Nations Conference. We are working hard to put together an unforgettable experience for everyone on 15-18 February 2018, at the Sheraton Norfolk Waterside Hotel.

Technology and science dominate more of our lives every day. Following the UN’s lead, ODUMUNC focuses on technology and science. Our attention is on the General Assembly, where topics include the prevention of armed conflict over water (First Committee) and accounting for the effects of atomic radiation from nuclear accidents and tests (Fourth Committee). The Economic and Social Council tackles climate change, natural disaster prevention and environmentally friendly industrialization. The science focus goes to the heart of our UN Committee on the Peaceful Use of Outer Space (COPUOS).

As an international student from Greece, I could not resist the urge to bring in the European Council, and a crisis on Turkey: President Erdogan’s Cabinet just before the July 2016 coup attempt. And since Model UN delegates are sticklers on rules and procedures, we want to shake things up with a Special Session on UN Reform, where Security Council membership, UN voting and finances will be debated.

With a rich tradition of successful conferences, our team knows the significance of the task we are carrying out for your school and students. Engaging role playing and exciting debate are our ultimate goals, as we share our passion for international politics by bringing it to life. I look forward to showing you what we have in store for your students.

On behalf of everyone the ODU Model United Nations Society, thank you for your participation! See you in February!

Best Regards,

Kleopatra Moditisi
Secretary-General
ODU Model United Nations Conference 41

About ODUMUNC

The Old Dominion University Model United Nations Conference is a simulation for high school students, emphasizing education in international affairs, role-playing, public speaking, and policy management. Over 1,000 delegates and an ODU staff of 70 strive for accurate representation of the policies of the countries and organizations they represent. In preparation for the conference, delegates research their country’s government, foreign policies, positions and interests as they relate to the topics under debate. At the conference, delegates promote their country’s policies under the leadership of ODUMUNC’s experienced staff, using with parliamentary rules and diplomatic practices. All in the intense atmosphere of Norfolk's Sheraton Waterside, in view of the world’s largest naval shipyard.
Dates and Registration

Both payment and registration form must be received by the deadline.

_Final registration deadline_ (Friday, 1 December 2017): Submit the registration form online, by fax or mail, with the registration fee of $65. The registration form and initial fee of $65 are due no later than 4 December 2017. We cannot guarantee registration requests received after December 4. _Delegations:_ A country delegation typically includes up to twelve students, depending on whether the country is represented only in the General Assembly or also in the ECOSOC and Security Council. There is no additional delegation fee for participants on specialized bodies and crisis simulations.

_Four delegations per school:_ Due to space constraints, delegation assignments may be limited. Schools that wish to send additional delegations should indicate on the registration form. There is a maximum of four delegations per school, not including the specialized bodies and crisis simulations.

_Country rotation:_ No school may represent the same country two years in a row. This assures equitable turnover, especially for high-demand countries.

_Photo Release:_ By registering and submitting participants’ names, sponsors grant Old Dominion University and the ODU Model United Nations Society permission to use their school’s participants’ names and/or photographs in ODU publications and media both in print and electronic. The Faculty Forum

ODUMUNC offers its unique Faculty Forum, a one-day seminar for teachers on an issue in international affairs, with maximum classroom relevance. This year's Faculty Forum is Can It Be Done? International Cooperation in Age Of Populism. It features professors from Old Dominion and other universities. The series typically features six speakers in an informal seminar environment, with refreshments. Old Dominion University offers Continuing Education credit for the Faculty Forum.

The Norfolk Naval Shipyards from the Sheraton Norfolk Waterside Hotel.
Committees and Topics

Each country delegation requires a minimum of 4 delegates (for each of the four General Assembly committees) to a maximum of 19 delegates (with 2 delegates each for the four GA committees, ECOSOC, COPUOS, Security Council and European Council, and one each on three crisis bodies). It is preferable that two delegates per body represent each country.

Schools are permitted an additional 5 delegates in specialized bodies: for 2018 these are the European Council and COPUOS with up to 2 delegates each, and the three crises bodies with 1 delegate each. The specialized bodies are on a per request basis. Participation is charged delegate fees but no additional delegation fee.

Registrations for crisis committees are yes/no. Specific assignments are made separately by the ODUMUNC Secretary-General in consultation with faculty sponsors.

Each school determines where its delegates can be used most effectively. To be eligible for school awards, each delegation must be represented in all its assigned committees.

For committee descriptions please see the website.

International Press Corps

Conference newspaper: ODUMUNC will again feature the International Press Corps (IPC). High school journalists working with ODU staff edit and publish the conference newspaper, The Chair’s Discretion. They report on the committees, caucuses, success and disaster, commentary and perspectives. This year students in the IPC will be assigned positions as journalists, playing different international news agencies. This will give students participating in IPC the opportunity to write in character about events going on in the conference.

Experience in journalism or model UN simulations is not a requirement. Students interested in an IPC assignment should submit an application by 12 January 2018. There is no registration fee for IPC participants.
