Greetings from ODU Peninsula

Hello Monarchs,

The faculty and staff at ODU Peninsula hope that you are well and adjusting to our new normal. It's hard to believe the impact that the COVID-19 virus is having on our daily lives. We want to assure you that we are here to support you with your academic goals. While our building is closed, you can still reach the ODU Peninsula staff via email – phec@odu.edu. We are ready and here to help! Please refer to the university's odu.edu/covid19 website for the latest updates and FAQs.

Transition to online classes for Summer

Changes in Academic Policies

Degree Plan holds – Usually, you must see your academic advisor to have your degree plan hold removed, but this semester your degree plan hold has been removed already to simplify your registration process. Even so, you're encouraged to contact your advisor with any questions regarding your courses.

Tutoring and Academic Resources

The university continues to offer tutoring and academic support resources virtually. Visit academic support services for a complete list of services

Student Counseling Services

Your well-being is important to us. Amid the uncertainty brought on by a global pandemic, together we continue adapting evolving and doing our best. We continue to offer Student Counseling Services free for all students. Call 757-683-4401 or visit the Office of Counseling Services.

As we are all gaining countless unexpected lessons in person and collective resilience, we at ODU Peninsula wish you the most positive possible Summer 2020 semester and are here to help you prepare for Fall and beyond.

Please feel free to contact us via email at phec@odu.edu.
