

Health Promotion Graduate Assistantship – Healthy Relationships Student Engagement & Enrollment Services, Recreation & Wellness

Number of Positions: 1

Job Summary: The Recreation & Wellness Health Promotion Graduate Assistant (GA) assists the Assistant Director of Health Promotion with planning and administrative responsibilities for Health Promotion programs.

Office Website: <https://www.odu.edu/recwell>

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Facilitate and evaluate health education programs including sexual health, healthy communication and sexual violence prevention topics
- Collaborate with campus and community partners to plan special events for KISSED Week, the Red Flag Campaign, Safe Spring Break Week, and DeStress Week
- Participate in the Green Dot initiative
- Assist in program marketing and promotion
- Assist in Health Education Grant Implementation
- Assist in the recruitment, training, and supervision of Peer Health Educators
- Other health education duties as assigned

Required Skills/Abilities:

- Currently enrolled in a graduate level program at Old Dominion University with experience in a health-related field or equivalent knowledge and experience
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Computer competency and organization skills are essential

Preferred Qualification:

- Knowledge of health promotion theories, research, and program assessment
- General knowledge of, or the ability to learn quickly, current, and emerging college age student health problems and existing methods of prevention/early intervention

For More Information, Please Contact:

Chantal Matthews, Assistant Director for Health Promotion, 1525 Webb Center, 757-683-5927, c2matthe@odu.edu

Position Reports to: Chantal Matthews

Knowledge and Skills Derived from Experience

- GA will gain direct experience planning, implementing, and evaluating health education programs
- GA will gain experience collaborating with other campus departments as well as other public and private organizations, health clinics, and universities
- GA will enhance interpersonal, oral and written communication skills

- GA will gain experience coordinating and speaking at planning meetings
- GA will gain experience designing and marketing programs and service
- GA will gain experience planning large, campus-wide events
- GA will gain experience advising students

Compensation: A stipend of $10,000 will be paid over the fall and spring semesters. There is a 61% tuition and fees waiver for eligible out-of-state students. A full tuition waiver will be offered for Ph.D. students.

Length of Assistantship: 10 months

How to Apply: How to Apply: If you are able - Complete this online application! If you cannot click hyperlink, then please visit the following website to complete an online application:
<https://form.jotform.com/203424681891156>

