Directions for Challenging a Criminal History Record

In the event you are determined not qualified to work or volunteer in a position that involves access to children, the elderly or disabled you may initiate a personal review of a criminal record. Please remember: you were fingerprinted for the position and the Central Criminal Records Exchange (CCRE) of the Department of State Police has determined the fingerprints are identical to criminal fingerprints on file at CCRE and/or the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and a conviction exists which is a barrier to employment or volunteering services. To initiate a review of a criminal record, follow these instructions:

CCRE – Criminal Record within the Commonwealth of Virginia

Report to Virginia State Police Administrative Headquarters between the hours of 8:00 am and 4:30 pm at 7700 Midlothian Turnpike, Richmond, Virginia or a VSP Area Office* and inform the receptionist you desire to challenge a criminal record. You must provide two forms of identification, one of which must contain a photograph. Your fingerprints will be obtained and searched against the criminal record fingerprint database and the criminal history record for the State of Virginia only will be reviewed with you. Should you have a discrepancy either at the charge or final disposition level you must address it with the contributor of the record or the court or arresting agency that submitted the record to CCRE. CCRE staff will provide the necessary guidance and information to establish contact with a contributing agency.

FBI - Criminal Record outside the Commonwealth of Virginia

Telephone the FBI, Special Correspondence Unit at (304) 625-5590, or visit https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks for instructions.

Privacy Act Statement

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include Federal statutes, State statutes pursuant to Pub. L. 92-544, Presidential Executive Orders, and federal regulations. Providing your fingerprints and associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, licensing, and security clearances, may be predicated on fingerprint-based background checks. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics may be provided to the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency, and/or the FBI for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories) or other available records of the employing, investigating, or otherwise responsible agency. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting, licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Applicant's Rights: Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the FBI and the Central Criminal Records Exchange (CCRE) of the Virginia State Police. You have the right to expect that officials receiving the results of the criminal history record check will use it only for authorized purposes and will not retain or disseminate it in violation of state or federal statute, regulation or executive order, or rule, procedure or standard established by the National Crime Prevention and Privacy Compact Council. If agency policy permits, the officials may provide you with a copy of your FBI criminal history record for review and possible challenge. If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at https://www.fbi.gov/services/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30 through 16.34.) You may obtain a copy of your Virginia Criminal History by submitting VSP Form SP-167, available at https://www.vsp.state.va.us/CJIS Criminal Record Check.shtm, to the CCRE. You may challenge the accuracy or completeness of a Virginia criminal history record through the CCRE Expungement/Rec
