I. PROCEDURE:

A. Business Meals

1. Generally, meal expenses must involve an overnight stay to qualify for reimbursement. In these instances, the traveler must adhere to the travel policies, procedures and regulations outlined for overnight meals and reimbursable meal limits.
2. Individuals who are not in a travel status are eligible for meal reimbursement if they participate in a business meal. Individuals in travel status may occasionally attend meals that qualify as business meals. Such meals occur while the individual is on official business and MUST:

- a. Include Agency Head (or designee) approval.
- b. Involve substantive and bona fide business discussions. You must provide specific details about the benefits to the University (REQUIRED).

Failure to provide sufficient detail will result in the meal being reported as income.

- c. Include the original itemized receipt (REQUIRED). The original itemized receipts must be centrally maintained in a department file, and copies of the receipts must be attached to the Expense Report.

Failure to provide an itemized receipt may result in your reimbursement being denied OR the reimbursement being added to your taxable income.

- d. List by name all persons involved in the meal and the reason for the meal (complete the Business Related Meal Expense Statement). If the reimbursement is for a group of conference participants, identify the number of people fed and provide an explanation of additional meals, if necessary (i.e., coverage of walk-ins).
- e. Business meal expenses are reimbursed for actual expenses up to the amount shown for the applicable meal in the M&IE Rate Table, excluding the incidental allowance.

- f. For individuals in travel status, the per diem allowance applicable to the business meal must be clearly excluded from the daily reimbursement.
3. The information reflected on the Business Related Meal Expense Statement must be submitted when employees request reimbursement for themselves and others for business-related meals that are to be considered non-reportable. The following information must be contained on the form:

2. An overtime meal allowance is a fixed dollar amount allowed while working or traveling in an overtime status.
3. Overtime status is when working or traveling time occurs beyond an employee's normal scheduled work hours but not overnight. An overtime meal allowance does not apply during overnight travel. In the case of overnight travel, per diem rates apply.
4. An overtime meal allowance is allowed when overtime worked is:
 - a. Essential to the agency's mission
 - b. Permitted by agency (departmental) policy
 - c. Approved by appropriate departmental personnel, and
