POINTS OF PRIDE

★ 1 Program, 3 Tracks

Students take core courses as a cohort then specialize in one of three tracks: international education; leadership & administration; or student affairs.

✈ Study Away & Study Abroad Opportunities

Students have the opportunity to travel to Washington D.C. (fall) and Richmond, VA (spring) to meet with policymakers and higher education association leaders.

Students can travel abroad on a different 10-day study abroad experience each year.

↑ Career Preparation & Development

Students complete two internships, plus a capstone course which culminates in a portfolio aligned with ACPA/NASPA Professional Competencies.

All ODU GAs receive travel support for professional development to attend and present at national conferences, e.g. NASPA, ACPA, NAFSA, SACSA, etc.

👥 Inclusive Excellence

ODU is proud Minority Serving Institution that believes diversity drives innovation and creativity, and fosters academic excellence.
