

Program Prioritization Task Force
April 7, 2021
Minutes

The Program Prioritization Task Force met electronically via Zoom on Wednesday, April 7, 2021 from 1:00-2:45 p.m.

The group one anonymous form received since the last meeting.

The final forum was discussed. It is scheduled for April 27. The following Task Force members will present at the Forum: Brian Payne, Desh Ranjan, Wie Yusuf or Mileta Tomovic (Admin overview), Nina Gonser (budget), and Mileta Tomovic (next steps going forward). Brian Payne will share the presentation prior to the Forum.

Brian Payne shared that he has started developing the framework for the draft report, which will be based on the consensus of the group. The report will be sent to the Deans first. A few days after the Deans receive the report, it will be sent to the rest of the University community for feedback.

Task Force members were asked to complete a prioritization survey that will be the starting point for the discussion on prioritizing new programs in the future.

Feedback from the administrative subcommittees was provided. The following units were discussed:

- Academic Affairs administration
- Continuing education
- Graduate School
- Honors College
- Strategic Communication and Marketing
- Center for Faculty Development
- Institutional Effectiveness and Assessment
- Faculty Diversity and Retention

The additional administrative units will be discussed at an upcoming meeting,
