

ODU OFFICE OF RESEARCH INTRAMURAL PROGRAM SOLICITATION

- I. PROGRAM: Program for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship (PURS) 2022-23 Guidelines
- II. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

The Old Dominion University (ODU) Perry Honors College Undergraduate Research Program, in collaboration with the ODU Office of Research, offers a number of grants to support one-year (May 15, 2022 -May 14, 2023) pilot projects in research and other scholarly activities. These projects should include authentic research and scholarship experiences for undergraduate students as a primary objective.

The purpose of the PURS is to provide seed funding for research and other scholarly activities that involve undergraduate students as integral members of the creative team. The PI should provide mentorship to an undergraduate student or students who will substantially support the goals of the project. This award is not intended to support undergraduates simply as technicians; successful applications will clearly outline a plan for mentorship and professional development of undergraduate mentees. It is expected that PURS awards will lead to applications of external funding sources, journal publications and/or discipline-appropriate scholarly products. Undergraduate mentees supported by this program are also expected to produce scholarly works, such as journal publications, presentation at professional meetings, and displays of artistic work.

Full-time ODU faculty, including research faculty, tenure-track faculty, and tenured faculty are eligible to apply. ODU undergraduate sophomore or junior-level status with a minimum G.P.A. of 3.25 are eligible to be mentored under this program. The awards may be used for student pay and faculty summer salary, as well as conference/workshop travel and materials necessary for completion of the work.

This funding program is for faculty members who have a well formulated and meritorious project that can be readily articulated and has not been previously funded. The PURS is not intended to support major projects, and PURS grants are not intended as continuing sources of support. The faculty member should be capable and willing, in the judgment of their chair, to carry out the project should it be funded.

- A. Successful applicants will devote one year (May 15, 2022, through May 14, 2023) to the project (Summer, Fall, Spring). Grant recipients are expected to perform original research or scholarship during this period, with significant and substantial involvement of undergraduate students. Regular (weekly, at minimum) contact time with undergraduate mentees is expected for the purposes of training and professional development.
- B. Successful applicants will recruit and select undergraduate mentees in the Spring semester prior to the initiation of the project and will provide mentoring for these students for the project duration. Involvement of undergraduate mentees is expected to be substantial throughout the project and is to include a commitment to at least 10 hours/week of research/scholarship during Spring and Fall semesters, and a 10-week summer commitment of at least 30 hours/week.
- C. Informal “site visits” will be made by Perry Honors College and/or Office of Research representatives in late summer to early fall to discuss projects with students and mentors.
- D. Successful applicants must make a Progress Report to the Office of Research by May 15, 2023, at the completion of the award period, as well as for 3 years thereafter.
- E. Principal investigators are expected to submit a funding application to an external funding agency for research or scholarship related to the PURS award in the calendar year following completion of the award period. Undergraduate mentees should be involved in proposal planning, writing, and preliminary data generation.

- F. Undergraduate mentees involved with awarded projects are expected to attend the ODU Undergraduate Research Symposium in the Spring 2022 and to present their work (oral, poster, or exhibit) at the Undergraduate Research Symposium in the Spring 2023.

Any exceptions to these guidelines must be made by the Dean of the Perry Honors College.
