

Higher Education M.S. Ed.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Assessment, Evaluation, Research - Students will be able to design and conduct an assessment, evaluation, and research study that responds to organizational needs.
2. Law, Policy, and Governance - Students will be able to apply legal constructs and governance structures to policy development processes.
3. Social Justice and Inclusion - Students will be able to apply and practice an appreciation for diversity, and commitment to equity, and design inclusive learning environment.
4. Leadership - Students will be able to apply leadership skills and attitudes to their applied learning experiences.
5. Organizational and Human Resources - Students will be able to create and implement strategies, interview protocols and decisions regarding staff selection that meets organizational goals.