

STRATEGIES FOR BUILDING AN ENGINEERING CAREER

Fourth Annual Women Excelling in Engineering (WE2)

A special virtual event for admitted and current female engineering students.

Batten College of Engineering & Technology is committed to helping our future and current female students excel in their engineering education and profession. This event will provide opportunities for admitted engineering students to speak with current engineering students to understand how to navigate their undergraduate journey. In addition, all participants will have the opportunity to:

- Learn from successful female ODU alums and industry leaders
- Explore engineering pathways and careers through engaging panel discussions
- Acquire valuable advice to build a successful engineering career
- Discover tools and techniques that can help build future success
